OUTLINE

Discover the art of academic writing with our 'Navigating Challenges in Academia: How to Work and Publish' Summer School, exclusively for doctoral students at Austrian private universities. Delve into the basics of academic writing, planning research methodology, the publication process and career development. Benefit from our Research Paper Clinic, where you can present and refine your research work at every stage.

This clinic welcomes projects from all disciplines, methods and stages of the research process. This is your chance to exchange ideas with like-minded peers, gain valuable insights and receive feedback from renowned professors. Improve your presentation skills and learn how to successfully overcome any academic hurdle. Join us for an enriching summer experience that will move you forward on your path to a PhD!

By choice students can obtain a certificate (4 or 6 ECTS). Participation without ECTS is also possible, please register until June 17th. If presenting a paper in the Research Paper Clinic, the discussion of a peers paper is mandatory. Papers can be at the stage of a research concept (please submit extended abstract à 600 words) or a working paper (7-10 pages). References are not included in word or page count.

Your submission (via email to bianca.weber@uni-seeburg.at) should include:

- ✓ Name, Affiliation, Semester
- ✓ ECTS-Certificate yes/no
- ✓ Extended Abstract or Full Paper (pdf, in english)
